Part II      Policy Statement

The Board of Directors (BoD) and Management are committed to promoting and enforcing a professional and ethical culture in Kenya Forest Service (KFS/Service) and will ensure that this Code is adhered to.

Part III      Purpose of the Policy

The primary purpose of this Code is to provide rules and guidelines within which KFS staff are expected to conduct themselves so as to ensure they comply with the Values, Principles and requirements of the Constitution of Kenya as provided for under Article 10 and practice KFS values.

Part IV      Application of the Code

This Code shall apply to all staff of the Kenya Forest Service.

Part V      Requirements

5.1.1      General Code

The Code of Conduct and Ethics is for KFS staff and shall apply together with all relevant laws and regulations. Staff shall ensure that their conduct in both public and private life does not bring disrepute to their office and KFS. All staff shall ensure they comply with the relevant laws and regulations and KFS Policies and Procedures.

5.1.2      Rule of Law

KFS staff shall carry out duties in accordance with the law. In carrying out the duties of their office, a KFS staff shall not violate the rights of any person unless otherwise expressly provided for in the law and in accordance with article 24 of the Constitution.

5.1.3      Public Trust

KFS staff shall exercise the authority and responsibility vested in his/her office in manner that maintains public confidence in the integrity of the office and in the best interest of the people of Kenya and KFS.

5.1.4      Performance of Duties

1. KFS staff shall:
  - To the best of their ability carry out his/her duties efficiently and honestly and in a transparent and accountable manner.
  - Keep accurate records and documents relating to the functions of his/her office.
  - Report truthfully on all matters of the department or office for which they represent.

- Take personal responsibility for the reasonably foreseeable consequences of any actions or omissions arising from the discharge of the duties of the office.
2. For effective service delivery, KFS staff shall:
- Be impartial: at all times, carry out the duties of his/her office with impartiality and objectivity and shall not practice favoritism, nepotism, tribalism; cronyism, gender or religious bias.
  - Be Punctual and timely: be judicious in undertaking his/her duties and be punctual and available in accordance to set working hours and as and when required.
  - Not be absent without approval from the place appointed for performance of their work.

5.1.5 Professionalism

KFS staff shall maintain high standards of performance, competence and ethics as required by their profession. The staff shall be required to:

- Treat members of the public and other staff with courtesy and respect.
- Not discriminate against any person.
- Ensure the efficient, effective and economic use of resources in his or her charge.
- Be accountable for his or her administrative actions.
- Maintain an appropriate standard of dressing and personal hygiene.
- Discharge any professional responsibilities in a professional manner.
- Where the KFS staff is a member of a professional body, observe and subscribe to the ethical and professional requirements of that body and ensure they are in good standing.

5.1.6 No Improper Enrichment

- KFS staff shall not use the office to unlawfully or wrongfully enrich himself or herself.
- Without limiting the generality of (a) above, a KFS staff shall not accept or request gifts, favors or a personal loan or benefit which may compromise the KFS staff in carrying out his/her duties as prescribed in this Code or any other law.

5.1.7 Moral and Ethical Requirements

1. A KFS staff shall observe and maintain the following ethical and moral requirements:
  - Be honest in the conduct of public affairs, not engage in activities that amount to abuse of office.
  - Accurately and honestly represent information to the public.
  - Not engage in wrongful conduct in furtherance of personal benefit.
  - Not misuse public resources.

- Not discriminate against any person.
  - Not falsify any records.
  - Not engage in alcohol and drug abuse.
  - Not engage in actions which would lead to the KFS staff 's removal from the membership of a professional body to which he or she may belong.
2. Staff who wish to be elected to a State office shall strictly comply with set electoral laws and give adequate notice to KFS as prescribed in the relevant laws and regulations.

5.1.8 Gifts or Benefits in Kind

1. A gift or donation given to Staff on a public or official occasion shall be treated as a gift or donation to the KFS.
2. Notwithstanding subsection (1), Staff may receive a gift given to the KFS in an official capacity, provided that—
  - The gift is within the ordinary bounds of propriety, a usual expression of courtesy or protocol and within the ordinary standards of hospitality.
  - The gift is not monetary.
  - The gift does not exceed Kshs 20,000 as prescribed by the Leadership and Integrity regulations, 2015.
3. Without limiting the generality of subsection (2), Staff shall not accept or solicit gifts, hospitality or other benefits from a person or organization:
  - Who has an interest that may be achieved by carrying out or not carrying out of the staff 's duties.
  - A person who carries out regulated and enforcement activities with respect to which KFS has a role.
  - A person who has a contractual or legal relationship with KFS.
4. KFS Staff shall not receive a gift which is given with the intention of compromising his/her integrity, objectivity or impartiality.
5. Staff shall not accept gifts comprising of precious metal or stones or any part of an animal or plant protected under national or international laws.
6. Subject to subsection (2), KFS Staff who receives a gift or donation shall declare the gift or donation to the Chief Conservator of Forest or the designated officer and the same shall be entered in the gift register.

5.1.9 Conflict of Interest

1. KFS staff shall use his/ her best efforts to avoid being in a situation where personal interest appear to conflict with KFS interests. In this regard staff shall not hold shares or have any other interest in a corporation, partnership or other body, directly or indirectly, if holding those shares or having that interest would result in a conflict with KFS interests.
2. KFS Staff whose personal interests' conflict with those of KFS shall: declare the personal interests to the Chief Conservator of Forests or the designated officer and comply with any directions given to avoid the conflict, and refrain from participating in any deliberations with respect to the matter.
3. KFS Staff shall not award a contract, or influence the award of a contract to:
  - Himself or herself.
  - Another staff.
  - KFS staff 's spouse, child or close relative.
  - A business associate or agent.
  - A corporation, private company, partnership or other body in which the staff has an interest directly or indirectly.
4. Where a Staff is present at a meeting, where an issue which is likely to result in a conflict of interest is to be discussed, the Staff shall declare the interest and refrain from participating in any deliberations with the respect to the matter. This shall be recorded in the minutes of that meeting.
5. All meetings at KFS shall have a standing agenda where the participants in the meeting declare if they have any interest in the matters to be discussed in the meeting.
6. It shall be the responsibility of the staff to ensure that any recordable interest declared is entered into the Conflict of Interest Register and the entry of such interests is updated.

5.1.10 Participation in Tenders Invited by the Service

1. Staff shall not participate in any tender and/or quotation for the supply of goods, services or works to KFS.
2. Staff shall not influence any procurement process.

5.1.10 Public Collections

1. Staff shall not solicit for contributions from the public or colleagues for a public purpose.
2. Staff shall not use his/her office or place of work as a venue for soliciting, collecting, promotion of collection of funds or participate in a public collection of funds.
3. Staff may with the approval from management, participate in a collection involving private use.

5.1.11 Bank Accounts Outside Kenya

1. Subject to Article 76(2) of the Constitution or any other written law, Staff shall not open or continue to operate a bank account outside Kenya without the approval of EACC. A staff so authorized by EACC shall submit statements of the account annually to the EACC and shall authorize the EACC to verify the statements and any other relevant information from the foreign financial institution in which the account is held. KFS Human Resource Function shall support the Staff in this process.
2. Without prejudice to the foregoing provisions of this section, Staff who fails to declare operation or control of a bank account outside Kenya commits an offence under the Leadership and Integrity Act, 2012.
3. The Service will ensure staff are sensitized on this provision and it is enforced.

5.1.12 Acting for Foreigners

Staff shall not be an agent of, or further the interests of a foreign Government, organization or individual in a manner that may be detrimental to the interests of Kenya.

5.1.13 Care of KFS Assets

1. Staff shall:
  - Take all reasonable steps to ensure that KFS and any other public property in the officer's custody, possession or control is taken care of and is in good working condition.
  - Not use KFS or any other public property, funds or services, for activities that are not related to the official work duties.
  - Return to the issuing authority all KFS and any other public property in their custody, possession or control at the end of the appointment term.
2. A staff who contravenes subsection (1) shall, in addition to any other penalties provided in the Leadership and Integrity Act or any other law, be personally liable for any loss or damage to KFS or any other public property.

5.1.14 Confidentiality and Misuse of Official Information

1. KFS Staff are expected to maintain confidentiality of information acquired in the performance of their duties.
2. KFS Staff shall not directly or indirectly use or allow any person under his/her authority to use any information obtained through or in connection with their position, which is not available in the public domain, for the furthering of any private or personal interest, whether financial or otherwise.
3. KFS Staff shall not be unduly denied authorization of use of official information where the information is to be used for the purposes of:

- Undertaking their duties.
  - Furtherance of the interests of this Code.
  - Education, research, literary, scientific or other purposes to further the interest of KFS or any other government policy.
4. Appropriate approvals shall be obtained to disclose information that is not in the public domain or as required by law.

5.1.15 Giving Advice

1. Staff who have a duty to give advice shall give honest, accurate and impartial advice without fear or favor.
2. A KFS staff shall not knowingly give false or misleading information to members of the public or any other staff.

5.1.16 Gainful Employment

Gainful employment is work that a person can pursue and perform for money or other form of compensation or remuneration.

1. KFS staff who are serving on a full-time basis shall not participate in any other gainful employment on a full-time or part time basis.
2. Staff shall not engage in a “gainful employment” which is: inherently incompatible with their roles and responsibilities at KFS; results in the impairment of their judgment in the execution of their roles and responsibilities; or would results in a conflict of interest.
3. Where a member of Staff has been offered employment by another Government body, express authority from the Board and Management shall be sought.

5.1.17 Offers of Future Employment

Staff shall not allow himself or herself to be influenced in the performance of their duties by plans or expectations for or offers of future employment or benefits.

5.1.18 Falsification of Records

Staff shall not falsify any records or misrepresent information.

5.1.19 Tax, Financial and Legal Obligations

1. Staff shall pay any taxes due from him or her within the prescribed period and shall not neglect their financial or legal obligations.

THANK YOU FOR ARRESTING THIS MOST
WANTED TERROR SUSPECT.
WE SHALL TAKE HIM INTO CUSTODY

2. In addition to (1) above, the staff shall:
  - Complete a declaration of income, assets and liabilities form as per government regulations.
  - Be prudent in his/her financial management so as not to be a pecuniary embarrassment which may impact on how the Staff performs his/her duties and KFS reputation.

5.1.20 Harassment

1. Sexual harassment- Staff shall not sexually harass a member of KFS staff or a member of the public. Sexual harassment involves any person holding a public office, who persistently makes any sexual advances or requests which he or she knows, or has reasonable grounds to know are unwelcome and may include, but not limited to:
  - Direct or indirect exerting for sexual activities or favors without consent.
  - Use of language whether written or spoken of sexual nature.
  - Use of visual material of sexual nature or showing physical behavior of a sexual nature which directly or indirectly subjects the person to behavior that is unwelcome or offensive.
2. Workplace Harassment- All KFS Staff shall be treated with dignity and respect. All Staff shall at all times use civil language and avoid unwelcome, abusive, belittling or threatening behavior to fellow staff and members of public. A Staff shall not bully or harass a member of staff or any other person. Bullying includes offensive behavior which is vindictive, cruel, malicious, humiliating or disrespectful in any manner that is intended to undermine another person.

5.1.21 Acting Through Others

1. Staff contravenes the Code if –
  - Staff causes anything to be done through another person that would constitute a contravention of the: Code; KFS policies and procedures; laws and regulations; or
  - Staff allows or directs a person under their supervision or control to do anything that is in contravention of the: Code; KFS policies and procedures; laws and regulations .
2. Where Staff considers that anything required of them is in contravention of the Code, KFS policies and procedures, laws and regulations or is otherwise improper or unethical, the Staff shall report the matter to Management.

5.1.22 Wealth Declaration

KFS Staff shall on initial appointment, every two years and on leaving the Service, submit to the Public Service Commission, a declaration of the income, assets and liabilities of him/herself, spouse or spouses and children under the age of 18 years.

Export/Import of timber without necessary documentation is punishable by law

5.1.23 Lodging of Complaints and Investigations

Staff who wishes to report an act committed by a KFS staff in breach of this Code, shall lodge a complaint with the KFS Complaints Committee through:

- an e-mail to: complaints@kenyaforestservice.org or
- physically dropping a written complaint in the complaint boxes placed within KFS offices.

The complaints shall be analyzed and investigated by the KFS Disciplinary and Advisory Committee. The Committee shall then give recommendations to Management on the issue.

As indicated in the KFS Whistleblowing Policy, a person reporting may use the internal or external reporting mechanism to report wrongdoings or malpractices which have occurred, are occurring or are likely to occur.

1. Internal Reporting Mechanism: A person who has information on actual or suspected wrong doing or malpractice may report to:
  - BoD or committees of the Board especially the Board Audit and Risk Committee;
  - Chief Conservator of Forests;
  - Corruption Prevention Committee which is composed of senior management;
  - Head of Division/Department;
  - KPF Public Complaints Committee;
